

Assistant Professor
University of Washington Tacoma

University of Washington Tacoma's Interdisciplinary Arts and Sciences Program is seeking applicants for a full-time, tenure-track Assistant Professor in Technical or Professional Communication. The successful candidate will be a dynamic scholar with an earned doctorate in a related field and a research and teaching focus in one or more of the following areas: Information Design, Interactive Design/Web Design, Documentation Design, Usability in Technical Communication, Quantitative Methods in Technical Communication, Corporate Communication and Non-Profit Communication. In exceptional cases candidates who are ABD may be appointed on an acting basis.

Teaching will be in the candidate's areas of specialization, lower-division academic writing courses, and will support other programs on campus. All University of Washington Tacoma faculty engage in teaching, research, and service in an interdisciplinary context. Appointment effective September 16, 2012.

To apply, please submit: 1) a letter delineating your interests and qualifications, a description of research projects underway, and your teaching experience, 2) a curriculum vitae, including a list of courses taught, 3) a statement of your teaching philosophy, 4) an article length writing sample, 5) evidence of teaching effectiveness, and 6) three letters of reference. Submit all application materials through <https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/1262>. Screening of applicants will begin December 15, 2011, and will continue until the position is filled. For further information, please e-mail Chris Demaske at cd2@uw.edu.

The University of Washington is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. The University is building a culturally diverse faculty and staff and strongly encourages applications from women, racial/ethnic minority group members, individuals with disabilities, and veterans.